

Celebrating the Magna Charta – April 17, 2021 – DC

Preliminary Notification

The 2021 Reception and Dinner of the National Society Magna Charta Dames and Barons will be held, Saturday, April 17, 2021 at the National Press Club, 529 14th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20045

“Rochester Cathedral and The Textus Roffensis”

Lecture by the Dean of Rochester Cathedral, The Very Rev'd Dr Philip Hesketh ACK DL. Subject: The Textus Roffensis, at Rochester Cathedral, has been described as one of the most important documents in English history and is not only hugely important in the history of English law and language but is also believed to have influenced the wording of the Magna Carta of 1215 and, later, the American Declaration of Independence of 1776.

We encourage our members and non-members to send us their written ideas and visions of the legacy of the 800th, both from 2015 and forward to 2025, as we'll as for the 250th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. If there are exceptionally creative ideas or exceptionally prominent advocates for the celebrations of either 2025 or the 250th, (with creative ideas), we plan to invite their presentation. Thanks to videotaping and the internet, the audience extends worldwide and into the future.

The Reception will begin at 5:30PM and the Dinner will begin at 7:00PM. The cost of the reception and dinner will be $130.00 and the cost for the reception without the dinner is $45.00, each with a cash bar. Reservations are required and limited. Black Tie is optional. Amounts contributed in excess of the cost of the dinner are deductible as charitable contributions. An additional charge of $10.00 per person is required for payment at the door. _____
